

Contact: Barbara Perkins, Executive Director
American Charities Foundation
Phone: 805/403-8103
Email: barbaraperkins@acfchildren.org
Web: www.acfchildren.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

American Charities Foundation is bringing awareness to the “forgotten children” in Santa Barbara County foster care with a fundraising event.

Santa Ynez, CA, November 16, 2009. – American Charities Foundation is holding a Peddler’s Marketplace on Saturday November 28, 2009 at Santa Ynez Valley Union High School, 2975 East Hwy 246, Santa Ynez, CA. from 9am - 3pm.

The event will feature a live performance by the Agin Brothers Territorial Law Band. Entertaining all ages Estrella the Clown will be performing magic and twisting balloon animals from 11:00 am -12:30 am, Spencer the Gardner who released his latest kid/family CD - Organic Gangster will be performing from 10:00 am -11:00 am and caricature artist Stephen Silver a top character designer in the animation industry, designing such hit shows such as Disney’s “Kim Possible” and Nickelodeon’s “Danny Phantom” will be drawing a crowd all day.

The Peddler’s Marketplace will include artisans, jewelry, designer apparel, antiques, kid’s zone, horse tack, specialty foods, live lobster and crab, photography, farmer’s market and much more.

Featured guest speakers include Kim Davis Director of Program Services CASA Santa Barbara County, Anne Rodriguez of Santa Barbara County Child Welfare Services and Family Care Network of San Luis Obispo.

Other notable local non-profit organizations sharing the spot light will include Animal Rescue Team Executive Director Julia Di Sieno and Cupcakes for Cancer founder Blake Colvin.

Wherever your inspiration comes from, please come support their efforts and the forgotten children of your community.

Admission to the event is free. Rain or shine.

###

P.O. Box 1688, Santa Ynez, CA 93460
PH: (805) 403-8103
www.acfchildren.org barbaraperkins@acfchildren.org